WASHINGTON

The Bee
—IS A—
GREAT ADVERTISING MEDIUM.
TRY IT!
Do you want reliable news? Do you want a fearless race advocate? Do you want colored trade? Read and advertise in THE BEE!

VOL. XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JULY 2, 1898 No. 5.

ROBERT H. TERRILL, Esq.,
Scholar, Lawyer and Linguist. (See 4th Page.)

DR. D. H. WILLIAMS.

THEY SAY.

Colored colonels will be needed oon.

District immunes who left on last Saturday night were in need of a bath.

It is surprising to us to see so much discrimination.

The colored soldiers will fight when it is necessary.

It is hoped that the colored schools will be reorganized.

Some people think it is not necessary to know themselves as well as to know others.

The colored American man is in need of advice.

Drawing the color line in schools is something the people will not tolerate.

Dr. A. M. Curtis of the Freedmen's hospital will have a bonanze on his shoulders.

Commissioner Wight did not appreciate the speech of young Wilkinson.

There are lots of things he will not like before he dies.

We don't always get what we like.

Let us think a little bit before we tell all we know.

Dick Greener is still lingering around.

Senator Hanna has won in Ohio.

Harry Smith of the Cleveland Gazette is a bold and fearless editor.

He is no toady to official favors.

Paymaster Lynch will start soon.

He is an honest man.

Capt. Lyons has a host of friends since he won without the aid of those who are now asking him for favors.

The BEE is glad to know that the Atlanta Age is satisfied.

Better once than never.

Some people carry two faces when nature only gave them one.

Honesty is always the best policy.

Speak the truth it will sting more that a lie.

The hot weather is hard on the soldiers.

If you want a great race advocate read The BEE.

The negroes are learning some sense.

If the Administration thinks that is can pull the veil over the eyes of the negro it is mistaken.

Patriotism begins at home.

There should be more patriotism on the part of the southern lynchers.

We need protection at home.

It is easier to run away than it is to fight.

Cowards run when no one is after them.

Some colored men will toady.

It is not the man who tells all he knows that is the wise man.

Wise men are not always the bold men.

Think well and act accordingly.

Read The BEE if you want a fearless race advocate.

No, we want no Afro-American league in this city.

President Fortune should call it in New York or Chicago.

Go south, say Virginia if not west.

We can then tell the southern people what we think of them.

Let us work in harmony.

The great man is the honest man,

Be honest and fear not.

The President will lift the civil service soon.

Lewis H. Douglas is a thorough race man.

He knows what he is talking about always.

None of the self-constituted committeee will volunteer.

Why is the delay, will some one explain?

Dr. Richardson will be commis on ed.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

A COWARDLY ATTACK.

The smelling committee, otherwise known as the board of visitors, appointed by the Secretary of the Interior, to investigate the Freedmen's Hospital, might have saved time and space in the Evening Star, had it devoted itself to a decent investigation of the Freedmen's Hospital, rather than a personal and cowardly attack on Dr. Daniel H. Williams. There never was a surgeon-in-chief appointed to the Freedmen's Hospital, who demonstrated his ability as a surgeon better than Dr. Williams. His executive ability was never questioned; his honesty in the disbursement of the funds of that institution cannot be questioned. THE BEE often warned Dr. Williams of the treachery and infidelity of certain associates he had around him. The published report of the committee tended to reflect on the honesty and integrity of Dr. Williams, which was cowardly in the extreme. No man stands higher in this county as a surgeon and physician than Dr. Williams, notwithstanding the report of the democratic board of visitors from the Interior Department. The sudden interest that the Secretary of the Interior takes in the colored people, will be looked upon with suspicion, because, he is one man in whom the colored people have no confidence and little respect.

Why were three white men appointed a board of visitors to a colored institution? Will Secretary Bliss appoint three Negroes as a board of visitors to a white institution? We want him to understand that the Negroes need no overseers.

As far as Dr. Williams is concerned, he has been treacherously betrayed in the home of his pretended friends; nevertheless, the people know the good he has done at the Freedmen's Hospital, and for that reason they have confidence in him, the Secretary of the Interior and his democratic board of visitors to the contrary notwithstanding.

MORE TROOPS NEEDED.

As the war progresses it becomes more and more apparent that additional troops will be needed in order to carry the war to a successful issue. And already in Congressional circles it is being seriously mooted as to whether an army of occupancy ought not to be mobilized for the purpose of holding conquered territory. Considering the climate of the anticipated territory, it seems more than probable that the colored brother will be called upon to attend to that end of the line. The only matter of speculation is the terms upon which the colored soldiers will be admitted. There will be no end to applications for enlistment, for, however much some of our white friends would have it otherwise, the colored man is patriotic and anxious to do his full share toward maintaining American honor and defending the rights of humanity. In justice to this patriotism which is as intense, as that felt by the whites, it is not unreasonable to hope that our troops will be officered in a large measure by our own race. It has been hinted on more than one occasion by the white press that the motive of the colored people is the obtainment of social position which army official advancement would probably and logically insure. It is also hinted that the colored people are anxious to support the flag for financial reasons. It may be that both these considerations may enter somewhat into the matter, but they are by far less important than that of being able to prove capability, skill and bravery. We have been considered cowards. Let us have a fair show and it will not take long to disprove this.

OUR SCHOOLS.

Considerable comment is being indulged in by our citizens reflecting but little credit on our school authorities, touching the apparent unfairness of the recent examinations conducted to test the eligibility of High School students to enter the Normal School.

We hear it intimated from many sources that a number of candidates who made a uniformly high record in the High School were unmercifully cut in their Normal examination. To say the least, it reflects but little credit on the management of the High School, for it is proper to assume that the averages in the latter school should determine the right of the applicant to enter the Normal, provided discriminations are not shown there.

TEACHERS' MEETING.

The National Teachers' Association will soon meet in our city. It is needless to point to the history of the town as regards the treatment of colored people by hotelkeepers and hash houses generally. To rescue the people from the stigma of prejudice and meanness, it would be well for some liberal minded first-class hotel keeper to throw open the doors to all without regard to color. It may be that but few would avail themselves of the unusual offer, but, it would constitute a departure which would be a step in advance of local sentiment generally. We have made ample preparations for our colored visitors and propose to entertain them handsomely, but we would delight to see some of our best people let down the bars notwithstanding.

"LET THE GALLED JADE WINCE."

The parting shots of the two young men who graduated from the High School are still reverberating through the chambers of the intellect of the teachers of the High School. Some of the teachers are chuckling while others with sober countenances protest that they were no parties to it. All the same the thing is done, and while some may question the expediency of the acts, there are but few if any who can say that the boys did not tell the whole truth. If our schools are not calculated to cultivate manly self-independence, why. what are they to cultivate? If the truth hurts, then "let the galled jade wince."

A GOOD MAN.

We congratulate Assistant Secretary Vanderlip upon his interest in the welfare of our progressive young men and women. The appropriation providing for the temporary employment of clerks to conduct the bond issue, has given Secretary Vanderlip opportunity to appoint clerks outside the Civil Service. He has appointed a number of competent colored clerks, as he says for the reason that it is the proper thing to give the race a chance where they are worthy. We thank Mr. Vanderlip and trust that he may never have reason to regret the position he has taken in the matter. Would there were a thousand like him. The race would fare better.

ROBERT H. TERRELL, ESQ.

ONE OF LEADING EDUCATORS IN THIS COUNTRY. A LINGUIST LAWYER, JOURNALIST AND EDUCATOR.

The Afro-American race can boast of the many educators, in this country but there is no man who stands higher among the leading educators than Robert H. Terrell, Esq., whose portrait graces the front page of this paper. In the city of his nativity, Washington, D. C., he stands high and is no doubt one of the most popular young men in this community and a man on whom all classes will concentrate, without the least opposition. He is a positive character. He has a most accomplished lady for a wife who can speak and write several foreign languages fluently. She was a Miss Church, before she became the wife of Mr. Terrell. She was formerly a teacher in the high school of this city, was subsequently made one of the trustees of the public schools after her marriage with Mr. Terrell. She is the president of the Afro-American Woman's Association, the strongest female institution, among the colored women, in the world. As a speaker and writer he has but few equals. He is a man of fine executive ability and honest in his dealings with his fellow men.

He was reared in the city of Washington, where he attended the public schools when they were first established. He attended the Sumner High School from 1872 to 1875. He prepared for college at Laurence Academy, Groton, Mass. He graduated at Harvard College, Cambridge, Mass., with the degree of A B, cum laude in 1884, being the first colored graduate of the University to win this distinction. He represented his class as one of the commencement orators by virtue of this honor, Mr. Terrell taught for a long time in the Colored High School in this city where his work was exceptional in character and highly commended. He was appointed a chief of a division in the Treasury Department during the Administration of President Harrison and filled his office in a most acceptable manner Mr. Terrell graduated at Howard University Law School in this city in 1889 at the head of his class and was the valedictorian. Since 1893 he has practiced law at the District bar.

He stands high in Masonic fraternity being deputy grand master of this Jurisdiction, he is also a member of the G. U. O. O. F., and an active worker in the order.

The citizens of Washington, irrespective of color are proud of Mr. Terrell. This is his home, the place of his childhood where he has felt the toils and cares that confront one when he is struggling for an education. He has taken every honor for which he has competed. He is the pride of his people anda rising star in the education firmament of this republic.

A COLORED COLONEL.

Register J. W. Lyons is the authority for the statement that the President will appoint a colored colonel in the army, and he would have appointed one long ago, if a man of national reputation had been presented to him. If we mistake not, men of national reputation have been presented to the War Department. It was a very easy matter for the department of war to have selected a colored man of national reputation, because we have hundreds of them in this county who are fighters and far superior to many of the white men who have been appointed. There is no man in this county stands higher and is better known than Major C. A. Fleetwood. He is a man of ability possessing a thorough knowledge of the manual of arms, and was awarded a medal for bravery by Congress.

Col. Milton M. Holland is another who is a born fighter. He was also awarded a medal for bravery.

Charles R. Douglass, son of the late Frederick Douglass, one of the first colored men to offer his services to the Government in the late war of the rebellion. He has a brilliant record and is a man of national reputation equal to any white man recently appointed by the President.

We have great faith in the honesty and integrity of Register Lyons, and we believe if he will only present any or all of the above names to the President favorable action will be taken.

President McKinley, we believe is friendly disposed toward the colored race, his every action has shown it.

Let us have a colored colonel, Mr. Lyons.

ROBERT H. TERRELL, ESQ

On the front page of this paper will be seen the portrait of Robert H. Terrell, Esq, one of the most brilliant and highly educated young men in the Negro race. Mr. Terrell is an educator as well as a lawyer of ability. He stands high in masonic circles, and is a prominent Odd Fellow. He was born and reared in this city and is considered among the people as a man of great prominence. He is one man on whom all classes of citizens can unite.

FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL.

DR. WILLIAMS ADMINISTRATION CRITICISED. A DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE INVESTIGATES. ITS REPORT CRIPPLES HOWARD UNIVERSITY, A COLORED INSTITUTION. THE DENTAL DEPARTMENT TO BE REMOVED. MORE ROOM WANTED FOR THE SURGEON-IN-CHIEF. DR. WILLIAMS' SISTER REMOVED.—THE FRIENDS OF THE FORMER CHIEF BETRAY HIM.—THE PEOPLE INDIGNANT.

Hon. C. N. Bliss, who is responsible for the importation of Dr. A. M. Curtis, of Chicago, to this city and placing him in charge of the Freedmen's hospital, a colored institution, sent a committee of white democrats, as a board of visitors, to that institution to investigate its management. This committee consisted of Messsrs. Geo. W. Evans, W. T. Pierson and Dr. John J. Darby, white democratic office holders in the department of the Interior. This committee has made some remarkable discoveries. It discovered that Dr. D. H. Williams, the former chief of the hospital had badly managed it and was over paying the colored matron, Mrs. M. J. Brown, a soldier's widow, who is only receiving $50 per month and complimented the white woman, Miss Ebersole, superintendant of the train-nurse department, who is receiving $100 per month. This female wanted to boss Mrs. Brown, the matron. Mrs. Brown has been asked to show cause why she should not be dismissed.

The white democratic board of visitors also discovered that there has been carelessness in the drug department and the condition and methods under the former chief were rotten. It also found out that the physicians ate beef steak, roast beef, lamb and ice cream which should not have been done.

The information obtained by the committee was furnished by the pets that Dr. Williams kept in over well and deserving people.

The committee found that negroes were learning too much dentistry and medicine, hence a recommendation was made for their abolition. Howard University has been ordered to remove its dental and medical departments immediately. All of these recommendations have been submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval. It is quite natural that this prejudiced democratic committee would object to negroes learning medicine

Miss Alice Williams. the sister of Dr. Williams, who held the responsible? position of making underwear for the sick, has been removed.

Dr. Curtis has six people in family, all residing at the hospital eating free meals and he receives $3,000 per year. Dr. Curtis approves of this wholesale wild goose chase recommendations of the committee, which will undoubtedly result in him returning to Chicago, faster than he came to this city.

A SOLDIERS' WIDOW.

Mrs. M. J. Brown, the matron, who was recommended for dismissal, is an ex-Union soldier's widow. She stands high in this community as a lady of refinement. She has been at the hospital for a number of years and had given entire satisfaction until the superintendant of the train nurse department attempted to run her department in connection with her own. It is not surprising to the people that this democratic committee recommended the removal of an ex-soldier's widow. The people are indignant.

A SOLDIER'S WIDOW.

A DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE AND THE NEGRO SURGEON-IN-CHIEF OF THE FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL AGREE TO REMOVE AN EX-UNION SOLDIER'S WIDOW.

One of the most outrageous acts ever perpetrated in the Freedmen's hospital is the removal of Mrs. M. J. Brown, by Dr. A. M. Curtis, the new negro surgeon-in-chief from Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Brown is one of the best known ladies in this city and until the appointment of Dr. A. M. Curtis to the position of surgeon-in-chief, Mrs. Brown has given entire satisfaction. On the 23rd of June Mrs. Brown received a communication from Dr. Curtis, charging her with insubordination, but stated no specific date nor did he specify to whom Mrs. Brown was insubordinate.

As soon as the information was obtained by The BEE, a visit was made to the hospital, (on last Friday June 23rd,) but the doctor had not arisen. However The BEE representative was asked to wait, in the mean time Dr. Curtis was sent for and on his arrival in the reception room, he was asked by our representative about the charges of insubordination against Mrs. Brown. He was asked to specify. The BEE saw readily that he was embarrassed from the evasive manner in which he answered the questions. He was asked if Mrs. Brown had been insubordinate to any one since his appointment as surgeon-in-chief. His answer was, no. He was asked if Mrs. Brown did not comply with the new rules that he has made. His answer was, yes.

In what particular had Mrs. Brown been insubordinate? His answer was, that he would like very much to keep Mrs. Brown, but she cannot get along with his help.

The BEE asked if the white superintendent of the train nurse department did not make all the friction and is she not Mrs. Brown's official inferior? Well, said Dr. Curtis, she cannot only get along with her, but there are others. The BEE asked, was not the other person Miss Williams in the sewing department? O, said the doctor, I shall abolish that office, it is illegal.

Don't you think said The BEE that you are running up against a snag? "O! no, what I am doing said he, is done advisedly, I have the confidence, respect and support of the Secretary of the Interior.

What Mrs. Brown and her friends want doctor, said The BEE, is to make your charges more specific. You have charged her with insubordination, but you don't say when, where or to whom. Is that fair? Would you like to be removed by such methods?

No, said he, and I will not make my charges more specific unless I am ordered by the Secretary of the Interior.

MRS. BROWN'S LETTER.

Following is Mrs. Brown's letter to Dr. Curtis in reply to his of June 23rd.

Dr. A. M. Curtis,
Surgeon-in-chief of the
Freedmen's Hospital,

Dear Sir:—

In reply to your communication dated June 23rd, 1898, requesting an answer why I should not be removed for insubordination and that my retention is prejudicial to the successful administration of the institution of which you are surgeon-in-chief, I have this to say:

1st. Since my appointment as matron of the Freedman Hospital, I have endeavored to successfully conduct the office of matron. I deny that I have been insubordinate to my superior officer since his appointment as surgeon-in-chief of the Freedmen's Hospital.

2nd. I respectfully request you to specify one act of insubordination on my part to you since your appointment as surgeon-in-chief or to any superior officer.

3rd. As matron of the Freedmen's Hospital, I recognize from your own statement, but one head, and that is the surgeon-in chief. And certainly I have never committed one act of insubordination, directly or indirectly. If in the exercise of my official duties, I have subjected the help to the rules, approved by you, constituted acts of insubordination, then I plead guilty. I respectfully deny the charges in toto and ask that you point out one act of insubordination on my part

Very respectfully,
Mary J. Brown,

Our representative next called at the Interior Department and had a talk with the appointment clerk, who had a talk with the private secretary to the Secretary of the Interior, as the Secretary had gone to a Cabinet meeting. He is a very affiable gentleman who could not give the representative a more specific copy of the specification and charges He was informed that our representative had been sent by Senator Jones of Nevada, to get a copy of specification and charges against Mrs. Brown. The appointment clerk informed our representative, very politely to inform Senator Jones, that the department did not allow attorneys in such cases; that Mrs. Brown had been furnished with a copy of the charges and that our representative could see her and get a copy. He was informed that such was not so. He retired to ascertain whether our representative had made the correct statement. He found out that such was the case. Our representative asked to see the Secretary, but was informed that the Secretary had gone to a Cabinet meeting.

Our representative then called upon the private secretary of the Secretary. He is a refined gentleman and very affiable. Our representative laid the whole matter before him, who seemed to be very much interested in Mrs. Brown's case. He was asked to hold up the dismissal of Mrs. Brown until she was given an opportunity to show cause of an alleged insubordination. That Mrs. Brown was a victim of personal prejudice against her on the part of the people in the hospital. That the trouble has grown out of the superintendent of the train nurse department, a white woman, who don't want to serve under a colored woman.

Then again the committee that the Secretary sent out to examine such witnesses were prejudiced to Mrs. Brown. What right had the superintendent of the train nurse department to show the committee through the wards, when there was a colored matron to do it. Can't you see, said our representative, the milk in the cocoanut? What would you do, if some of your subordinates attempted to exercise the function of your office without your authority? "I would not allow it." This is precisely the case of Mrs. Brown.

You had better, said the private secretary, let Mrs. Brown prepare a letter to the Secretary at once, our representative left and returned Wednesday morning with the following letter from Mrs. Brown:

TO THE SECRETARY.

Washington, D. C., June 29, 1898.
Hon. C. N Bliss,
Secretary of the Interior,

My dear Sir;—

On the 23rd of June I addressed a letter to the Surgeon-in-chief of the Freedmen's hospital, Dr. A. M. Curtis, in reply to a letter from him, of even date. Among other things he charges me with insubordination and asked what reason had I to suggest or what had I to say why I should not be dismissed from the service. In reply to that communication I endeavored to explain to his satisfaction why I should not be dismissed, but to my surprise, I have been informed, through Mr. Chase, that my letter was not satisfactory. With your permission I shall endeavor to explain to you the trouble that I have had to encounter, since my stay at the Freedmen's Hospital, as matron. Under Dr. D. H. Williams, the respective duties of the help of the hospital had not been defined The superintendent of the train nurse department would invariably infringe upon my rights as matron by giving orders to the help under my control and assume the authority over certain help delegated to me, relative to work with which she, (Miss Ebersole,) had nothing to do. Time and again I would report her actions to the former Surgeon-in-chief, Dr. Williams, but in every case my complaints would be ignored. I had the same trouble to contend with in the case of his sister, Miss Williams, who was appointed to an office created for her, by her brother, Dr. Williams, and not recognized by law. I would give direction to her to make garments one way and she would make them to suit Miss Ebersole, from whom she would receive orders. When I would report the actions of his sister to him, Dr. Williams, which were in violation of my orders and dictations the sister would be sustained every time. I have on all occasions, to the best of my ability, done the work assigned to me, but when subordinates violate the rules or the authority vested in me as matron and the acts of the violators indorsed by my superior officer, who is to blame? Does this constitute insubordination on my part?

Since the appointment of the new surgeon-in-chief, I complained to him of the injustice and imposirion practiced upon me and thereaftt he made rules and regulations for the government of the several departments, to which I immediately subscribed when he submitted them to me. I have not since the establishment of the new rules, violated one. The great trouble is, that the superintendent of the train nurse department wants to direct and dictate the management of the hospital and those employed therein, even her superior officers, which has been and is the cause of the alleged friction that existed and does exist in the Freedmen's Hospital today. The only objection Miss Ebersole has in serving under me as matron, is because I am a colored woman and she, Miss Ebersole, is a white woman, hence it is but natural, with her color prejudice that she objects serving under a negress.

The present Surgeon-in-chief, Dr. Curtis, cannot point out one act of insubordination on my part toward him or any one superior to me, if I have any, except himself, as matron of the Freedmen's Hospital. Does insubordination consist of endeavoring to compel subordinates to do their duty? Am I to be dismissed because I am objectionable to the white superintendent of the train nurse department, who is suppose to be my inferior, officially? Is this fair? Is this just and fair dealings toward a helpless colored woman and a soldier's widow? Am I to be dismissed on the ex-parte statements of persons who are personally inimical to me, because I have in the discharge of my official duties endeavored to comply with the rules and regulations governing the duties of matron? All I ask is that the charges against me be fairly and impartially investigated by competent and impartial judges and impartial witnesses summoned If I am dimissed it will be on the prejudicial testimony of prejudiced witnesses whose names have not been furnished me and whose testimony I have not seen nor read. The last rule of the President, states that no employe in the classified service shall be dismissed without first giving him a chance to rebut the charges. If this means anything, and I have no doubt that it does, I should be furnished with copy of the specifications and charges upon which to predicate a reply. This I say, has been denied me, except a general letter has been sent me making one general charge of insubordination, etc. In conclusion, I respectfully asked that no further action be taken until I am given a fair trial.

Very respectfully,
Mary J. Brown.

THE EDITOR CALLS ON MR. BLISS.

Wednesday morning the Editor called at the Interior Department and went directly to the office of the confidential secretary. The letter of Mrs. Brown was handed to him to read. He said, after he had finished reading it, that the Secretary would not recognize attorneys in cases of dismissal. He was informed that the Editor was a friend of Mrs. Brown and that he had certain facts that the democratic board of visitors did not discover at the hospital. However, he escorted the editor to the office of his highest, who is said to be the terror of the Adminstration. Our representative amused himself fully an hour in the reception room before his highest would condesend to invite the editor in. The very polite little secretary of Mr. Bliss, came out with a message, "walk in," the editor entered and after giving a polite bow, begun to rise, when the Secretary was informed what the editor's visit was, which was briefly stated as follows:

THE STORM

Editor,—Mr. Secretary, I have called to see you in the interest of Mrs. Brown, the matron of the Freedmen's hospital, who has been requested to answer a letter sent to her by the surgeon-in-chief. I want to state further, that Mrs. Brown is the victim of prejudice and personal spite.

Mr. Bliss,—"I don't believe it. This is what all of you say when you come here."

Editor,—I want to state Sir, that Mrs. Brown is a reputable lady and a soldier's widow.

Mr. Bliss,—I don't care what she is, if she doesn't resign I shall dismiss her. The Freedmen's hospital is the worse conducted institution in this city and a disgrace to the colored people and I propose to clean it out.

Editor;—If you will get good men you will not have any trouble. If you insist on appointing men who are objectionable to the people, you will certainly have trouble.

I want to say, Sir, that Mrs. Brown will not resign and you shall be given an opportunity to dismiss her, she is a lady and will not be subjected to her inferiors in office

The indignat Secretary, Mr. Bliss, had never had a negro to talk to him like this. His lips quivered and his right hand in which he held his pen, (and by the way, he was writing at the time,) could hardly remain on the paper. Secretary Bliss is badly in need of good manners. The indignant secretary was too perplexed and exasperated to bid the editor good day, but the last thing the editor said to Mr. Bliss on leaving his office was, that Mrs. Brown will not resign, no sir, she will not resign.

CARRIED OUT HIS THRETS.

While Mrs. Brown was sitting in her room at the hospital, waiting for the word from the editor to leave, as she knew that the rattled secretary would carry out his threats, the order was immediately given to dismiss the colored soldier's widow.

FREEDMEN'S HOSPITAL.

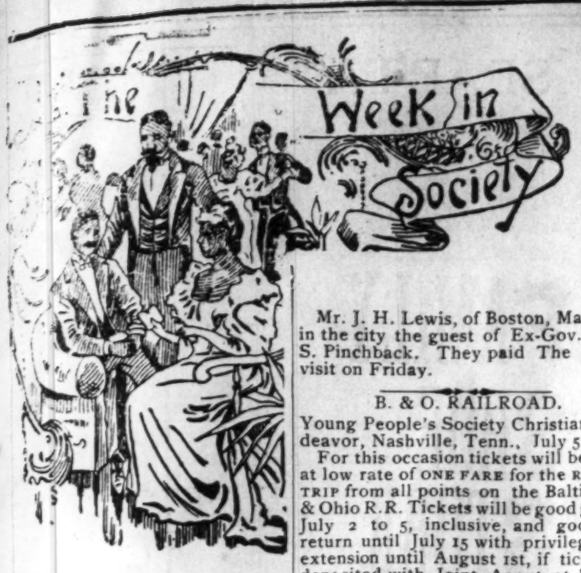
Washington, D. C. June 29, 1898
Mrs. Mary J. Brown,
Freedmen's Hospital,

Madam:

You are hereby notified that your services as matron of Freedmen's Hospital will terminate on and after June 30th, 1898,

Very respectfully,
A. M. Curtis,
Surgeon-in-chief.

It is quite evident that Dr. Curtis is not surgeon-in-chief of Freedmen's hospital. He never consults the secretary, because at the department it is said that he is afraid of him. Dr. D. H. Willaims was made of sterner stuff.



Mrs. W. H. Brooker has returned to the city from New York City. She had a delightful time at Coney Island.

Dr. D. Williams, formerly surgeon-in-chief at Freedmen's Hospital, has been appointed examining surgeon in the army. THE BEE would like to know if the President consulted Secretary Bliss.

Lawyer Thomas L. Jones left the city Thursday morning to attend the Charlottesville, Va. Republican convention.

Mrs. T. L. Jones and her two children left the city Thursday morning for Oxenhill, Md. She will be gone all the summer.

Editor and Lawyer R. C. O. Benjamin, of the Lexington, Ky. Standard, with his little son were in the city this week. In company with Editor Robinson of the Virginia Leader they paid The Bee a visit. Editor Benjamin looks well and hearty. He left the city for Boston, Mass.

Mr. Ed. Robinson, 2021 L street, left the city Thursday for his regular summering at the seashore.

Capt. "Lud" Chambers of the Grammercy is recovering from his recent illness.

Mrs. James H. Fletcher, of 105 D St. N. E. is preparing to leave the city for New York, where she will make her future home.

Mrs. Emma Robinson Page of Capitol Hill, will summer in Richmond Co., Va

Miss Eva H. Harvey will leave the city shortly for Purcelville, Va.

Dr. Rhodney Dade, who has been sick at his home in Purcelville, Va., is improving.

Miss Louise Hamer will visit in New York this summer.

Miss Sarah Jackson of South Washington will leave soon to rusticate in the mountains of Virginia.

Miss Jeanette E. Anderson will leave the city shortly for Hill Side Retreat, Silcott Springs, Va., where she will spend her vacation.

Mr. George W. Coffee, of the Y. M. C. A., who has been doing missionary work at Camp Alger, left the city Thursday for Long Island, N. Y.

HOWARD LAW SCHOOL.

The friends of Mr. Harry Williams of the District Supreme Court, were very much surprised to learn that he did not graduate in law last May, because his aptness and knowledge of law were evidences of his ability. It has been ascertained that his standing in the class was high enough; that he passed all the examinations, but because he failed to attend the sessions regularly, the faculty, it is said, refused to graduate him, notwithstanding the fact of his passing all of the examinations. One of the judges of the Court of Appeals gave Mr. Williams a high recommendation and testified to his legal ability.

COLORED LAWYERS MEET.

NOT PLEASED WITH THE SENTENCE OF LAWYER JAMES H. SMITH.

A meeting of several members of the bar met on last Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock to take some action relative to the conviction and sentence of Lawyer James H. Smith, recently charged with embezzlement.

It was claimed at the meeting that Judge Bradley gave several of them to understand if Mr. Smith paid back the money he was charged with embezzling, sentence would be suspended. The amount that was charged in the indictment amounted to about four or five hundred dollars, but the Jury found him guilty upon two counts which amounted to about $108.

All but about twenty dollars if this amount had been paid to the new committee Mr. Folly and on the morning of Mr. Smith's sentence, he had the balance in his pocket to turn over to Mr. Folly, but the death of his, (Folly's) child prevented him from being at court.

To the surprise of those who were interested in the case, the lawyers alleged Judge Bradley reprimanded Mr. Smith and sentenced him to 18 months in the penitentiary.

What made the colored lawyers more indignat and chagrined is, that Mr. Smith was one of the foremost colored members of the bar, with Lawyers Hewlett, Frisby, Moss, Peyton and others who defended Judge Bradley against the attack of the preachers and the Senate committee for account of an alleged remark that was attributed to him at the time one Smith was convicted of murder. All of this was freely discussed by the colored lawyers.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.

Between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking Emma: You have been complimented for your excellent work. Strict discipline is what is neccessary.

Estelle: A young lady should be well supplied with escorts. Never depend on the company of one male.

Ella: Your letter was too indiscreet. It is in bad taste to use vulgar terms or slang; always display good manners.

Lulie: It was Fred Douglass who first offered a son to Major Andrews. History of the negro soldiers will enlighten you.

Etta: Old coals will kindle some times. Fond recollections of the past generally recalls to one's mind loving events.

E. P. Do not expose your ignorance to young men. They often take advantage of it.

M. P. Dressing is an art and few girls seem to appreciate the fact. You should always dress with taste.

D. T. Nothing is more distasteful than to see a crowd of girls assemble gossiping about frivilous matters. Useful and beneficial topics should always occupy the mind of a young girl.

S. T. Too much familiarity often leads to disagreements and unpleasantness. Never allow yourself to get too familiar with any one.

B. M. It is generally the rule. One is very seldom sought after until some thing is needed. Some girls are deceitful.

I. T. Society should be polished and polite. "A loud laugh portrays a vacant mind."

Ola: You should have resented the insult at once. A pretentious man will pretend that he has great interest in your welfare.

Essie: Take my advice and never go on a common excursion. I am opposed to girls going on excursions unaccompanied by parents.

N. B. You did the right thing to refuse wines offered you. The manner was vulgar as well as the place.

C. W. Such a person who pretends to so many should not be trusted.

E. S. It makes no difference whether you were engaged to him or not. Circumstances have separated you. The frienpship that once existed should not be tolerated, if you have accepted an engagement ring from another. Give him to understand in plain English that his company is not acceptable.

D. H. If you girls will permit long courtship, it is your fault. I have a poor opinion of a young lady who would ask for a present from a gentleman to whom she is engaged.

E. Never place youself under obligations to any one. It is better to be poor than to place yourself in such a position.

Jeanette: My opinion is that your manners were rather rude. Sedateness and polite manners will win all the time.

Minnie: You should always attend to business as you are directed. Never talk your business to other people.

Marie: You can be pleasant always, but be postive in your business relations.

It is quite easy for one to misjudge your meaning.

L. E. S. Your selection should be appreciated, I am sure. You should remember however, that an intelligent girl should not marry below her station, nor should she be intellectually man's inferior.

Y. M. One's house affairs should not be exposed to the neighborhood.

Talkative girls are not to be trusted with secrets. My advice is to confide in but a few.

M. B. C. Never attempt to look upon one with contempt. You never know when you will be compelled to go to him for aid and succor.

E. O. I would advise you to be honestin your dealings with your associates. Nothing commends a young woman more than honesty. You must be a positive character. When a young man loses confidence in you, it would be better to find another companion. A young lady that commands the respect of any man is a jewel.

Flirtation: In reply to your letter of recent date, I would suggest that you discontinue such practice. A few men have confidence in a young girl who obtains her acquaintance by flirtation No refined and cultured young lady will carry on flirtation with any man no matter who he may be. I have but little faith in office holders. A majority of them spend their money before it is drawn.

Anna: It is in bad taste to allow a young man to meet you at a place of amusement. He should certainly take one evening off to escort you to the place of amusement.

Punch cards: No young lady should take punch cards to solicit money. It is vulgar and no lady of refinement and education would be guilty of such impropriety, money for churches should be collected differently. The lady will either be insulted or her intentions may be misconstrued.
